
2011 - THE YEAR OF CHANGE 2012 - TO BE VERY INTERESTING

Peace and Blessings Family Mine,

This year has been one of many changes. I have seen great, wondrous, and interesting changes. I have embarked on an attitude of adventure, which is to find and enjoy new activities, places, and people. Need I say that I am loving those experiences? The AG site says "The only time life is stagnant, static, non-changing, or non-growing, is when it ends." I had no idea how true the words would be when I wrote them 17 years ago.

Here I am 17 years later, with a Black Man in the White House! Know that I don't agree with 100% of his decisions. No problem, because life is like that sometimes. The whole greater good thing and all. Due to the mess I have seen since President Obama stepped into office, I have started to pay attention to the national political world and I am not impressed with what I have seen. We know the republicans have a no help attitude. If I had to compare the national political situation, to the 'hood I would call them "those people". You know who I'm talking about. The one who don't have jack better to do than cause confusion all the time. We call them 'haters'. OK?

I will be real with you. If you are not making 1 million $ a year – you are NOT in the 1%. Bottom line. That makes you in the 99%, just like I am. OK, still being real. So when the masses decide to protest, sit in, stand in, stand up, and/or occupy a park, a state government building, outside of Wall Street or Banks that are too big to fail, we should watch and listen to the issues.

I have seen peace protestors sprayed with pepper spray like insecticide on a base of a house. I have seen an Iraq Vet hit in the head by a projectile, which left him with some verbal skill challenges! All of this was by local cops. Not one Fed cop to be found doing this mess. National Park Service, to its credit only dismantled an illegal structure on public land and arrested those not moving from the structure- well so I read. If I find they abused anyone I will put them on blast!

If we are not real careful we will be stuck with someone who is not about the best for the 99%, but for a select few. These haters are serious about dismantling programs we pay tax $ into so that they are there to assist those of us who need them. Some of them have taken positions of security for very few of the population, some of which have said that they would pay more taxes if it helps the economy. Some have taken oaths pleading not agreeing to raise taxes, while having no issues on raising payroll taxes on the 99%. Oath takers, Hippocrates, Liars! My, my, my.

Watch this mess carefully family, for the outcome could effect you, your family member, your neighbors, and/or your friends. Don't let the haters take over. Keep on the path of change, adventure, global peace, and the upliftment of people all over the world. Stand for 99%^{rs}, the poor, the abused, the babies, women, elders, animals, the earth and all things that you want to leave for your babies.

As Brother Scholar says "Third Eye, follow your headlight!"
