Remembrance is the process of finding what has been lost to memory. It is how we come to know ourselves again when others have confused our Way. Mwalimu Baruti's book Kebuka!: Remembering the Middle Passage through the Eyes of Our Ancestors is an essential tool for those who seek remembrance, for those who endeavor to find their Afrikan Way. It is a journey for those who want to be healed and those who will become our uncompromised healers.

It helps open our Afrikan mind to ancestral remembrance by giving the real feel of our Maafa (Great Destruction). Through it, we can see our forced movement out of Afrika as our ancestors experienced it. It gives us our memory.
