No Yong Park (Pao) the Author of the book, An Oriental View of American Civilization said “The greatness of a nation does not depend on the size of its territory, or the number of its population, or the strength of its army and navy; it rests on its ability to maintain justice, justice that will insure every man what is due him, be reward or punishment.”

Respond to the Recent Noose Hangings and Racial incidents around the Country. He will be giving Another Powerful Lecture Series: titled “What’s Next, the Noose or the Burning at the Stake?”

Muhammad supports the thousands, perhaps millions, who will come to Washington, DC for the “March for Justice”
On November 16, 2007 at the Justice Department.

After the “March for Justice” in Washington, DC, let’s take the fight for Justice to the next level. Let’s make a demand for Human Rights, let’s join hands with Silis Muhammad and 300 other Afro Descendants Organizations in New York, as they join us at the United Nations.

“This will give us universal rights, the same equal rights as any other human being.”

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad said “If a small, well-twisted cord Is hard to break, then how much harder is it to break 100 cords well twisted into one? We are well educated in the knowledge and what the slave-master dislike of us. If they are afraid of our unity as one nation of brotherhood, why should not we unite?”
